

Rea's Wood Clean Up

Back in February it came to light that Rea's Wood, on the shores of Lough Neagh, was severely littered after the harsh Winter storms. Since then many volunteers contacted Live Here Love Here, Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council, the Forestry Service and the Lough Neagh Partnership to offer their support. We had to ensure the water levels had receded and that any dangerous debris was removed from the paths before we could call on the public to come and get involved.

Join us at Antrim Lough Shore Park on Saturday 23rd April at 10.30am, shuttle transport will be provided.

Volunteers will be joined by staff and team members from Forestry Service, Live Here Love Here, NIEA, Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council, Six Mile Water Trust, Lough Neagh Partnership and Tesco Antrim

Volunteers must register with Nicola Murray at Keep Northern Ireland Beautiful

Adopt A Spot: Dab Hands and New Recruits

One of our first Adopt A Spot groups, the Coast Office Watersports Club who have been an Adopt A Spot group for 2 years carried out a great beach clean at Portballintrae beach. They hope to expand the area that they have adopted to include the dunes area of the beach next time! During their clean up they bumped into our friends at NIEST!

On Saturday 5th March, the 2nd Donaghadee Brownies organised an event and volunteered their time to carry out a clean-up of Donaghadee beach. A great group of twenty eight girls and their leaders took part, and they were able to collect 14 bags of litter and remove it from the stretch of beach in the space of just two hours. During their clean-up they even found a car tyre!

The Brownies participated in the clean-up as part of the Clean For The Queen campaign which was run by Keep Britain Tidy and supported by Keep Northern Ireland Beautiful. The aim of the campaign and the event itself nicely compliments the Brownie promise- to serve their community and their Queen.

They caught the litter picking bug and have now become an Adopt A Spot group!

Two of our latest Adopt A Spot recruits have hit the ground running; Camowen Community Anglers are holding their first clean up on Camowen River on Saturday 2nd April and another group, Patrick Sarsfields GAC, are holding a weekend long clean up from Friday 8th to Sunday 10th April on their club grounds and surrounding area.

Good Luck to all!

Were watching you...

Ards and North Down Borough Council will begin to use "Eyes" posters to combat dog fouling around schools in the Borough. When posters like these were put up at sites across England by Keep Britain Tidy, they recorded a 46% fall in dog fouling in the surrounding area. Ards and North Down Borough Council began placing the posters in March, while other councils and land managers have expressed an interest. ## Dear Live Here Love Here Diary...

It has been a pretty busy month for Live here Love Here. Early in March we joined forces with our friends at Ulster Wildlife for a beach clean at Ballylumford power station in Larne. The event was organised by Katy Bell, Ulster Wildlife - AES Biodiversity Intern. A team of 10 headed on to the beach and we managed to collect a total of 13 bags of rubbish as well as 3 tyres and a car bumper. We were supported by the great staff of the power station who came out to take part as well.

On Wednesday 9th of March we were off to St George's Market for the Belfast Skills fair which was a great opportunity to meet lots of people who want to help improve their local area. A big welcome to all our new supporters.

On Wednesday 23rd of March we had a morning in the Kennedy Centre in West Belfast with Live here Love Here stall to promote some of the great work we do. We had a great warm welcome from staff and customers resulting in many new supporters for Live Here Love Here. It was great to see so many people interested in getting involved and we look forward to seeing what Live Here Love Here activities they come up with to help improve their local area.

We were even busy bunnies over the Easter Break as we joined in the fun at the Ulster Museum on Easter Monday and Tuesday. It was great to see so many families getting involved in both supporting and learning about the campaign; Thanks guys we now have lots of new supporters because of you!

As April approaches we wonder where we will be off to with all these Big Spring Cleans! Until next time, Bye.
